Much success in 2017, will continue for 2018

We are looking at adding vendors to the academic hallways at a slightly discounted price in addition to our normal spaces. Those of you who have attended last year will be given first choice at your booth again on the main floor for this year. We are just looking at ways to accommodate all the vendors who want to be a part of this amazing show. Elk Mound runs their show with discounted hallway spaces so we are going to give it a try....

After will fill the main floor spaces, we will contact the applicants who were put on the waiting list to see if you would like a booth in the academic hallway.
