The University of Dallas k-12 curriculum team will highlight how schools, students, and families benefit from an education rooted in the True, Good, and Beautiful and address the questions:

- What do we mean by the terms truth, goodness, and beauty?
- Why do they matter for education?
- How are they found across curriculum?
- How do they direct the soul towards God?
- How do they lead us to serve our neighbor?

The University of Dallas is a Catholic University dedicated to the pursuit of wisdom, truth, and virtue. Deeply respectful of our shared responsibility to the younger generation and of the immense importance of K-12 educators, the University seeks to serve teachers, educational leaders, parents, schools, and communities who wish to partner with it in striving for ever greater excellence in teaching and learning. In fidelity with the teachings of the Catholic Church, the University supports academic freedom and religious liberty, welcoming cooperation with individuals and groups from all backgrounds and beliefs, secular and religious.
